

High Conflict Divorce

Our initial approach in any divorce case is to try and help our clients settle their case in an amicable and businesslike manner. Unfortunately sometimes, that's just not possible. Usually those cases involve an opposing party whose level of anger or hostility is so great that we are unable to negotiate reasonable settlements about economic issues or reach agreements about what's in the children's best interest. While we will always go the extra step to help the client settle the case, sometimes when it's not possible, litigation is our only other alternative. At the Law Firm for Family Law we have extensive experience in conducting trials, and have handled more than 600 divorce cases in the last 5 years. We bring to you the experience necessary to ensure that your case is handled properly, be it through a settlement negotiation or in a high conflict divorce, through litigation and trial. Call our office today and discuss with us how we can be of assistance to you in dealing with your high conflict divorce.
